On a Friday evening of a long Eid weekend, you don't expect too many people glued to their chairs watching a play. But, that's exactly what happened at Rajasthani Sangh where the spiritual play, Yugpurush — Mahatma's Mahatma, an inspirational portrayal of the close association between Mahatma Gandhi and his spiritual mentor Shrimad Rajchandraji, was staged. The occasion was the 150th birth anniversary of Shrimad Rajchandraji and the play highlighted the values of giving love selflessly, respecting diversity, supporting truth, fostering trust and building lasting communities. The play which had 14 actors playing 64 characters, had the crowd in rapt attention. The play is currently being staged Gujarati, Hindi, Marathi, Kannada and Bengali, and the Tamil and English version are in the pipeline.
